We asked everybody in the debate club: Please debate what has been on your mind recently.

Mayuyu: That's like asking about anything!
Mariri: What's been on our minds?
Yumimi: Hey, listen. I've got something. You often say, 'piece of cake', right?
Mayuyu: I don't think I do.
Mariri: Yeah, me neither.
Yumimi: Look, that's not the...
Nononon: Oh, Yumimi! I think I do! (Blush) I think I said it last week, too.
Yumimi: Sure. So, what do you think a 'piece of cake' has to do with difficulty?
Mayuyu: It's not limited to difficulty alone. We could be talking about the 'peace' you get from eating cake.
Mariri: We could also be talking about 'peas' made of cake!
Yumimi: Like hell we would! You're using the wrong words!
Nononon: Oh! Oh! Then we may be talking about the 'piece' made and played by the cake!
Yumimi: ...Sure.
